

Your business... our passion

welcome to brighter

Fresh perspective

When you need an advocate who listens, supports, and solves — all for you!

The cost of providing employees with a benefits program has a big impact on your bottom line. In fact, behind salaries, employee benefits may be your second largest ongoing business expense.

60% of Mercer's more than 8,000 clients in the US are small and midsize companies with fewer than 5,000 employees

To help you navigate today's complicated employee benefits landscape, you need a partner who understands you and your industry. We do!

Discover the Mercer advantage

Local relationships are critical to your success; however, it takes more to truly understand your business, industry, market, and challenges. It takes a team with cross-functional skills and years of expertise working with companies just like yours to give you a decided advantage.

No benefits challenge is too small or too big for Mercer. We help employers of all sizes design, place and manage tailored employee benefit programs.

When you collaborate with us, you can expect creative, leading-edge solutions that solve your challenges today – and an adviser you can rely upon to anticipate the ones you will face tomorrow.

You benefit from our expertise

Save money

Negotiating the best group coverage rates, terms and conditions ensures agreements are right for you and your employees.

We benchmark your programs against ones from companies like yours to ensure that your benefits remain competitive.

Navigate the ever-changing environment

Change and uncertainty in healthcare are the new norm and you can rely on our team of legal and compliance experts to provide you with the information and guidance you need to make sense of federal and state legislation. We will also help you manage new cost and administrative challenges.

Save time

Our customized solutions remove administrative burdens, allowing you and your HR team to focus on larger strategic issues.

Create a healthy, engaged workforce

We focus on helping you create an actionable strategy that develops, communicates and reinforces a commitment to personal health and wellbeing. We have a flexible modular approach to bring you targeted solutions that align with your culture, employee population and organizational needs.

Access specialty services

When you collaborate with Mercer, you get much more than just benefits design, placement and management. You also benefit from the following value-added specialty services:

Communications

You receive professionally written and designed employee benefit materials leveraging our best practices and the latest communication techniques for engaging employees – all delivered within a cost-effective approach scaled to meet your needs.

Benefits Outsourcing and Administration

We tailor administration, as needed, to match the complexity and automation needs of your plans. This results in administrative efficiency and enhanced employee engagement – all at a predictable cost.

Voluntary Benefits

Provide your employees with more flexible benefit choices to fit individual needs.

Mercer Workforce Health (MWH)

Take advantage of our prescreened vendor partners with favorable pricing arrangements and wellness programs tailored to your employees' needs. With MWH, it's a win-win-win for you: less employee absenteeism, improved employee productivity, and better bottom-line business results.

International Consulting

Unlike many of our competitors, we give you proven on-the-ground brokerage services and worldwide expertise in successfully implementing and managing a global benefits program.

- Country employment guidelines
- Benefits benchmarking
- Plan design, communication, and renewal management
- Improved compliance and cost savings
- Streamlined benefits management and communication

Life, Absence and Disability (LAD)

Competitive LAD offerings ensure your employees and their families can live comfortably and happily if something tragic happens. Outstanding service and benefits employees truly value are just two of the features of Mercer LAD.

Compliance and Regulatory

You will have a team of lawyers and other legal professionals who focus entirely on health and group legal compliance issues. Our Regulatory Resources Group will ensure that your plan design, operations and transactions comply with any current and new laws from a practical, risk management perspective.

MercerWise 401(k)

A fully outsourced solution, Mercer acts as a named fiduciary responsible for the operation and investments for the plan, thereby reducing administrative burdens, reducing fiduciary risk and contributing to improved participant outcomes.*

Compensation Analytics Bundle

Get quality compensation data- accessing resources when you need it, reduces HR strain, benchmark high quality and save.

*"Improved participant outcomes" does not imply improved investment performance but instead pertains to the participant experience.
