

Mercer online resources

Stay informed

Mercer's Law & Policy Group is a team of lawyers, actuaries and technical experts who provide analyses on US, state and global compliance and policy matters affecting benefit and leave programs. Visit this site to:

- Read highlights of the most pressing legal and policy issues related to health, retirement, and other benefit and employment topics
- Find downloadable GRIST articles providing in-depth analysis, timely insights and commentary to help you make sense of legal developments and policy trends and what they mean for your organization
- Subscribe to the monthly Global Legislative Updates summarizing worldwide legal developments that affect retirement, health, executive rewards, talent, diversity and inclusion, and other human resource (HR) programs

US Health News provides a weekly email on the latest healthcare and other fringe benefit developments, along with observations, research and best thinking from Mercer's knowledgeable subject-matter experts. Subscribe today!

Investment news and insights shares the latest insights on market outlook and trends, portfolio strategies, alternative and private market investments, and environmental, social and governance (ESG) investing. You can get more of our research and access hundreds of third-party publishers and asset managers on MercerInsight® Community. Join today!

Retirement insights provides Mercer's latest thought leadership and insights on defined benefit and defined contribution plans.

Talent and transformation insights explores Mercer's latest thought leadership and insights on talent and transformation. Discover innovative ways of working, how to reinvent your employee experience, and how to shape an inspiring, sustainable future of work.

Featured events and webcasts shares Mercer's expert views on current trends and developments affecting health and retirement benefits, investments, career and executive pay, and other HR issues. Visit this site often to find upcoming global, country specific and local programs on targeted topics of interest, along with recorded sessions for those unable to attend the webcast.

