Chile

On January 1, 2026, the minimum wage increased (Spanish) to 539,000 CLP/month, up from 529,000 CLP/month. Since January 2025, the CPI registered during the last six months of the previous calendar year is used to calculate changes to the minimum wage.

Colombia

On February 19, 2026, Colombia's president announced (Spanish) the reinstatement of the 23% minimum wage increase to COP\$1,750,905 (Spanish). Previously, a high court had suspended (Spanish) the wage increase on February 13, 2026, giving the government eight days to issue a new decree together with an economic justification for the increase.

Costa Rica

On January 1, 2026, the private sector minimum wage rate increased (Spanish) by 1.63% following a decision by the Costa Rica National Wage Council. Other increases apply to different roles: a 2.33% increase for domestic work; a 0.55% increase for generic specialized occupations; and an 0.88% increase for mid-level technicians in diversified education.

Curacao

On January 1, 2026, the monthly minimum wage increased (Dutch) to 2,066.28 ANG, up from 2,029.90 ANG, and the hourly rate is now 11.93 ANG, up from 11.72 ANG.

Dutch Caribbean (Bonaire, Saba and Sint Eustatius)

The statutory minimum wage is indexed across all three islands, based on 2025 inflation rates. For 2026, the rates are as follows: in Bonaire, the rate increased by 3.3% to $10.69/hour; in St. Eustatius, the rate increased by 1.9% to $10.61/hour; and in Saba, the rate increased by 3.5% to $10.66/hour. Weekly or monthly wage rates depend on the number of hours worked.

Ecuador

On January 1, 2026, the basic minimum monthly salary increased (Spanish) to US$482, up from US$470. Different minimum wage rates apply, depending on the industry sector.

El Salvador

On June 1, 2025, the minimum wage increased (Spanish) to $408.80/month for workers in the commerce, services, industrial and sugar mill sectors. The minimum wage also increased to $402.25/month for workers in the textile and apparel industry, and to $272.67/month for workers in the agricultural sector (including coffee workers).

Guatemala

On January 1, 2026, Guatemala increased (Spanish) the minimum wage rates by between 4% and 7.5%, dependent upon industry sector and working conditions applicable to certain job types.

Honduras

Increases to the minimum wage for 2026 and 2027 were agreed to on April 27, 2026. The 2026 increase (between 6% and 7%) (Spanish) is applicable from January 1, 2026, and employers have until July 2026 to make retroactive payments in installments if they are unable to make a single payment. Wage rates vary according to the employer's workforce size and by industry sector. The 2027 increase will be between 6% and 7.5%. Workers in the maquiladora textile sector and companies located in free trade zones are excluded from the scope of this agreement.

Jamaica

On July 1, 2026, the weekly minimum wage will increase to JM$17,000 per 40-hour week, up from JM$16,000, calculated on a 40-hour week. The minimum wage rate is the same for all employees.

Mexico

On January 1, 2026, the minimum wage increased by 13% (Spanish) to MXN$315.04/day, up from MXN$278.80/day. In the Northern Border Free Zone, the minimum wage is MXN$440.87/day, up from MXN$419.88/day.

Nicaragua

On March 1, 2026, minimum wages (Spanish) generally increased by 4% in all economic sectors. The increase will remain in force until February 28, 2027. Different monthly minimum wage rates apply to each industry sector (for example, manufacturing increased to 8,000.46 NOP/month, up from 7,692.75 NOP). The free trade zone sector is excluded from this minimum wage adjustment following a 6.7% increase for 2026, effective January 1.

Panama

On January 16, 2026, Executive Decree No. 13 (Spanish) was published for the period 2026 through the end of 2027. The minimum wage rates vary between two regions (Region I and Region II), depending on the size of the company, its operations, and occupation.

Paraguay

On July 1, 2025, the monthly minimum wage in the private sector increased (Spanish) to 2,899,048 PYG, up from 2,798,309 PYG. The daily minimum wage is 111,502 PYG, up from 107,627 PYG. The increased wage rates are included in Decree 4,122.

Peru

Saint Lucia

On October 1, 2024, Saint Lucia's monthly minimum wage increased to XCD$1,130. The daily and hourly wage rates are XCD$52 and XCD$6.52, respectively. The minimum wage was introduced for the first time on August 1, 2024, and provided employers with a transition period until October 1, 2024.

Trinidad and Tobago

On January 1, 2024, the minimum wage rates increased to TT$20.50/hour (up from TT$17.50 /hour); TT $164/day; TT$820/week for a 40-hour working week; and TT$3,553/month for an average of 173 working hours during the month.

United States

For the latest US minimum wage rates, see this roundup: Roundup: US employer resources on \$15/hour or higher minimum wage rates (Mercer, regularly updated).

United States — Puerto Rico

On July 1, 2024, the hourly minimum wage (Spanish) in Puerto Rico increased to $10.50, up from $9.50. The minimum wage increase does not apply to agricultural workers, “administrators,” “executives” and “professionals” (as defined by Regulation No. 13 of the Puerto Rico Minimum Wage Board); employees covered by a collective bargaining agreement establishing higher wages; and all government, municipal, judicial, and legislative branch employees.

United States — Virgin Islands

On April 24, 2026, the hourly minimum wage increased to $12.00, up from $10.50. The minimum wage will increase to $14/hour on June 1, 2027, and to $15/hour on June 1, 2028. The Wage Board will determine the 2029 rate based on economic data.

Uruguay

In 2026, the national monthly minimum wage increases (Spanish) in two phases to UYU$25,383 by July 2026. On January 1, 2026, the first increase is UYU$24,572, up from UYU$23,604.

Venezuela

Venezuela's official minimum wage has stayed the same since 2022, fixed at 130 VED/month. However, both public and private employers have increased workers' overall income by providing additional non-salary bonuses, such as the Economic War Bonus, food allowances, and other similar payments.

Section 4

Asia Pac

Australia

On July 1, 2025, the National Minimum Wage and minimum wages specified in awards increased by 3.5% to AU$948/week, up from AU$915.90/week, and the hourly wage is now AU$24.95, up from AU$24.10. Employers must ensure that employees subject to a modern award are paid at least the minimum wage, even if an enterprise agreement applies to them.

Currently, 121 modern awards apply to employees in various industries and occupations. Approximately 20.7% of the Australian workforce (about 2.6 million employees) are paid in accordance with minimum wage rates in modern awards.

Cambodia

On January 1, 2026, the monthly minimum wage for workers in the textile, garment, footwear and travel goods sectors increased to US$210/month, up from US$204. The rate for probationary workers is US$208/month.

China

On January 12, 2026, the government updated its chart (Chinese) with current minimum wage rates. The monthly minimum wage is paid to full-time employees, and the hourly minimum wage is paid to non-full-time employees, such as part-time and temporary employees whose daily working hours do not exceed four hours and 24 hours/week.

Hong Kong

On May 1, 2026, the minimum wage increased to HK$43.10/hour, up from HK$42.10. In April 2024, the Chief Executive in Council agreed (Chinese) to the Minimum Wage Committee's recommendation to review the minimum wage annually.

India

The Code on Wages, 2019, was implemented on November 21, 2025. It introduces uniform definitions for wages, workers, and employees; requires timely payment of wages and bonuses; establishes equal pay for equal work; and establishes a national floor wage, with states deciding the exact rates. At least 50% of total remuneration must be classified as wages, which may increase employer costs related to the Provident Fund, gratuity, bonuses, and leave encashment liabilities. Statutory deductions will also increase, which will potentially reduce workers' take-home pay.

Indonesia

On December 17, 2025, Indonesia's president approved (Indonesian) the formula for calculating the 2026 minimum wage increase. The formula is based on the sum of inflation and economic growth, multiplied by an alpha factor which ranges between 0.5 and 0.9. For 2026, the provincial minimum wages (UMP) Indonesia generally increased by approximately 5-7%.

Regional wage councils calculate the recommended minimum wage increase and regional governors set the final minimum wage rates at provincial, district, and city levels, considering factors such as regional economic growth and average wage levels. They also set sector-specific minimum wages, but these can only be implemented if they meet strict criteria and have the agreement of the relevant sectoral employer organisations and labour unions, in accordance with a 2023 Constitutional Court ruling.

Japan

In September 2025, the government confirmed that the minimum hourly wage will increase by 6.3% to ¥1,121. The labor ministry announced (Japanese) that the prefectures must increase minimum pay by an average of ¥66/hour in the current fiscal year — the largest increase since recordkeeping started in 1978. The increases were supposed to take effect in October 2025 at the earliest — the dates vary by prefecture.

Laos

Effective October 1, 2024, Laos's monthly minimum wage increased to 2.5 million LAK, up from 1.3 million LAK. This is the third increase since June 2022.

Macau

On January 1, 2026, the minimum wage rates increased to 7,280 MOP/month; to 1,680 MOP/week; to 280 MOP/day; and to 35 MOP/hour.

Malaysia

On February 1, 2025, the national minimum wage increased to 1,700 RM/month, up from 1,500 RM/month, for employers with five or more employees. Starting on August 1, 2025, the minimum monthly wage applies to all employers, regardless of their workforce size. The government reviews the minimum wage at least once every two years.

In 2023, Malaysia's cabinet approved the progressive wage policy (PWP) that aims to complement the minimum wage policy and reduce the economic gap between certain states. According to the 2025 budget speech, the pilot phase began in June 2024 and the policy will be fully enforced in 2025. PWP guidelines will define annual progressive salaries for every sector, occupation and level.

Myanmar

Myanmar's National Committee for Setting the Minimum Wage introduced an additional 1,000 MMK daily allowance for private-sector workers. The combined minimum daily wage is now 7,800 MMK (the 4,800 MMK base wage plus a 3,000 MMK allowance), retroactively applied to October 1, 2025. Overtime pay is calculated on 4,800 MMK/day.

New Zealand

On April 1, 2026, the adult hourly minimum wage increased to NZ$23.95/hour, up from NZ$23.50 for workers aged 16 years and older. The new hire and training minimum wage is NZ$19.16/hour, up from NZ$18.80/hour.

Philippines

Regional Wage Orders can be viewed on the National Wages and Productivity website.

The Philippine Senate has proposed a bill that would introduce a national (instead of regional) minimum wage.

South Korea

On January 1, 2026, the hourly minimum wage rate increased (Korean) to 10,320 KRW for all businesses, up from 10,300 KRW. The monthly minimum wage is 2,156,880 KRW calculated on a 40-hour work week and 209 hours/month.

Sri Lanka

On January 1, 2026, the minimum wage increased to 30,000 LKR/month (up from 27,000 LKR/month) and to 1,200 LKR/day (up from 1,080 LKR/day).

Taiwan

On January 1, 2026, the minimum wage increased (Chinese) to NT$29,500/month (up from NT$28,590/month) and to NT$196/hour (up from NT$190/hour).

Thailand

On July 1, 2025, the daily minimum wage increased to 400 THB for certain businesses in Bangkok.

The minimum daily wage rates in other provinces remain unchanged from the increases (Thai) that took effect on January 1, 2025 — the wage ranges are from 337 THB to 400 THB, up from 330 THB to 370 THB, depending on the province. However, the daily minimum wage rates have also increased to 400 THB nationwide for type 2, type 3 and type 4 hotels under the Hotel Act and for entertainment establishments under the Entertainment Place Act. The daily 400 THB rate applies to all businesses that meet the criteria, even if the province's general minimum wage is lower.

On May 20, 2025, the government announced new minimum wage rates for 13 skilled job types in different industry sectors. The new rates will be between 485 and 800 THB/day and will take effect 90 days following their publication in the Royal Gazette.

Vietnam

On January 1, 2026, the minimum monthly and hourly wages across the four regions increased under measures included in Decree 293 (Vietnamese). The regional monthly minimum wage increased to 5,310,000 VND (up from 4,960,000 VND) in Region 1; 4,730,000 VND (up from 4,410,000 VND) in Region 2; 4,140,000 VND (up from 3,860,000 VND) in Region 3; and 3,700,000 VND (up from 3,450,000 VND) in Region 4. The hourly minimum wage increased to between 17,800 VND and 25,500 VND (up from 16,600 VND and 23,800 VND), depending on the region.
